

Graci Etna Rosso Nerello Mascalese 2021

taste & smell profile

Minerality

Dried Roses

Cherry

Exotic Spice

food match:

Roast Pork, herbs and fennel

rating:

Aroma:	1	2	3	4	5
Taste:	1	2	3	4	5
Body:	1	2	3	4	5
Finish:	1	2	3	4	5
Quality:	1	2	3	4	5

tasting notes:

Darkly floral and opening slowly in the glass, the 2021 Etna Rosso smolders up with a nuanced blend of crushed rocks and dried roses. It's soothingly round with medium-bodied weight and a saline mineral tinge up front that gives way to depths of tart cherry-berry fruits. The 2021 tapers off structured, long, yet beautifully balanced, with red inner florals and lingering exotic spice hints. This is punching well above the category of Rosso, but it will need some cellaring to come fully together. Eric Guido, Vinous

Drink from: 2028+