

William Fevre Chablis Grand Cru Bougros 2019

taste & smell profile

Green Apple

Citrus

Salinity

Minerality

food match:

Steamed fish with ginger and spring onions.

rating:

Aroma:	1	2	3	4	5
Taste:	1	2	3	4	5
Body:	1	2	3	4	5
Finish:	1	2	3	4	5
Quality:	1	2	3	4	5

tasting notes:

A ripe and beautifully layered nose consists of notes of green fruit, citrus, iodine and mineral reduction. The powerful, rich and voluminous big-bodied flavours possess fine mid-palate density that coats the palate with sap before concluding in an austere, long and vaguely rustic finale. This is an imposing Bougros that should age effortlessly over the next decade plus. Allen Meadows - Burghound.

Drink from: 2029+